And also Brave is on a mission to fix the web by giving users a safer, faster and better browsing experience while growing support for content creators through a new attention-based ecosystem of rewards.

How does Brave Rewards work?

1.Brave Browser users earn tokens by surfing the web

Brave Rewards is built on the Basic Attention Token (BAT). People who use the Brave Browser can earn tokens by viewing privacy-respecting ads.

2.They tip tokens to you, their favorite content creator

Your subscribers, followers, or readers can automatically tip a set amount to you each month, or give one-time tips in an amount of their choice.

3.You sign up as a verified content creator on Brave Rewards

Signing up as a verified content creator gives you access to the Creators dashboard, where you can manage all your tips. It will also give you access to your referral link, which you can use to earn more tokens.

4.Collect your tips in the Creators dashboard

Once you've signed up and logged into the dashboard, you can use our partner Uphold to automatically convert the tokens you earned into a currency of your choosing.

When you create content and Brave get you paid.

Brave Rewards helps you earn more for doing what you do best and get back some of that revenue lost for when your viewers use ad blocking. Get paid directly by your audience for your content, instead of relying on ad revenue.

Is Brave free?

Yes — Brave is free! You'll always be able to use Brave without paying in either money or your personal information. Shields protects you from tracking as you browse the web. Brave Rewards lets you earn tokens by viewing ads and pays it forward to the people who create the stuff you love online. All for free. If you want to support sites in Brave without earning tokens through ads then you'll have to use your own money. Everything else is on us — and Brave has a lot of features.
